

LIFE AND DEATH STRUGGLE.

A Brave Officer Meets Death at the Hands of a Desperado.

On last Friday J. Howard Wilson and William Stamper left this city for Menefee county to arrest Tip o' Day. They located him near Mariba and at 4 o'clock on Sunday evening while they were secreted by the road side, near the home of Tilford Back on Dry Ridge, Day and James Bush, of this city, in company with two of Henry Jones' daughters passed by. James Bush has for more than a year been in the employ of Thos. Heinrich, of this city, as agent for the purchase of poultry etc. Wilson and Stamper followed and when within a few yards of the four, called, halt. Wilson did not know either Day or Bush, but was informed by Stamper which of the two was Day. Wilson leveled his shot gun on Day, but instantly Day drew his pistol and fired the shot striking Wilson in the breast and ranging toward the left side; Wilson then fired the contents shattering Day's left arm. Day again shot Wilson the ball entering the abdomen on the lower right side. Wilson called to Stamper to shoot Day. Stamper at a glance saw Wilson was mortally wounded and the fight between Day and Stamper began. In the conflict Day shot at Stamper three times, each shot missing. Stamper began with his own pistol but soon got Wilson's a 44 Colt, and shot Day five times, twice in left breast, twice in right and once in center of body below. Wilson died in a few seconds and later his body was taken to the home of Tilford Back, from the window of which the fight was visible.

Bush took no part in fight, according to report. By whom he was shot time may develop. One bullet entered his body, from which he died on Monday morning, at about 6 o'clock, at the home of Frank Gose, in Mariba, where he and Day were taken in the afternoon.

Stamper watched over the body of his dead companion until the arrival of undertaker Eastin, after midnight. Monday the body was brought to this city and prepared for burial and was taken to his residence in the country late in the afternoon. The funeral service conducted by Revs. H. D. Clark and D. W. Robertson will be held at the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon and burial in Macpelah.

DAY'S CRIME.

Tipton Day, aged 22, is the son of Bailey Day, formerly of Harlan county, but now a resident of Menifee county.

Six years ago he committed murder and robbery in Lee county, Va. On Nov. 11, 1899, requisition papers were honored by Gov. Bradley.

The remains of James Bush were brought to this city yesterday afternoon for burial.

Day's death is hourly expected.

Beat Up.

Thos. Henry beat up Mr. Alfrey to that extent that it was thought he would die. Thos. Henry is conducting a store at Howard's Mill where Alfrey had been dealing, his tobacco crop being held for the obligation. Henry having become uneasy because of the amount of obligation went out to the tobacco patch where an altercation took place. The neighbors became incensed and were bordering on to violent dealing.

The blood is strained and purified by the kidneys. No hope of health while the kidneys are wrong. Foley's Kidney Cure will make healthy kidneys and pure blood. Nothing else "just as good."

Mr. Pickrell will continue to operate the plants until Jan. 1st, 1901, when he turns them over and receives the cash. What business Mr. Pickrell will engage in is not in our mind; be sure however, it will be some enterprise for the people's interest as well as that of self. A public promoter and enterprising man is Mr. Pickrell, who couldn't if he would, keep out of a moving, pushing business. For this reason we are glad of the sale: Mr. Pickrell will engage in other lines which will redound to public good.

Circus.

Sells and Gray is the name of a circus which proposes a show here some time the last of the week.

If we put together what we hear about this circus, adding our experience with human nature, we would decide it is a mighty poor thing. Their advertising agent came. He placed a few bills. They seemed scarce. One paper was traded with for advertising and the agent was gone. A first-class show, one the people are safe in the hands of, advertised by bill liberally and thoroughly your county paper. They let the people know what they have. Sells & Gray is not Sells Bros. We know nothing of them and hence can not advise our people to patronize them at all.

We acknowledge courtesy of the Cynthia Fair Co. Dates of fair are August 1, 2, 3, 4. Premiums amount to $3,000. Special attractions each day. Admission 25c. Half fare on railroads. Apply at this office for catalogues.
